

Azure Plan billing mode

Current experience

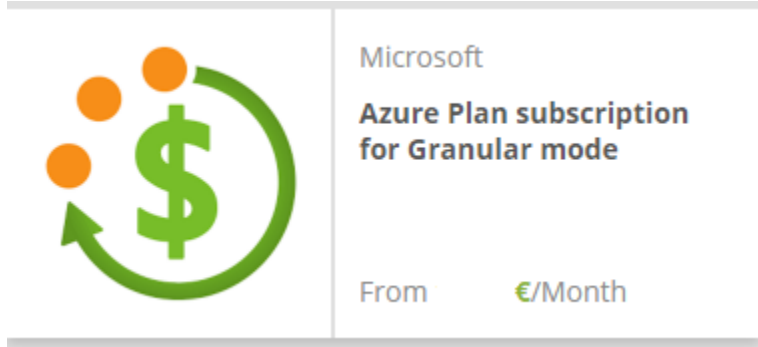

All azure subscriptions within Azure Plan are aggregated in the CMP invoice.

New experience

Customer is able to choose whether each Azure Subscription will be billed separately in the invoice or remain aggregated.

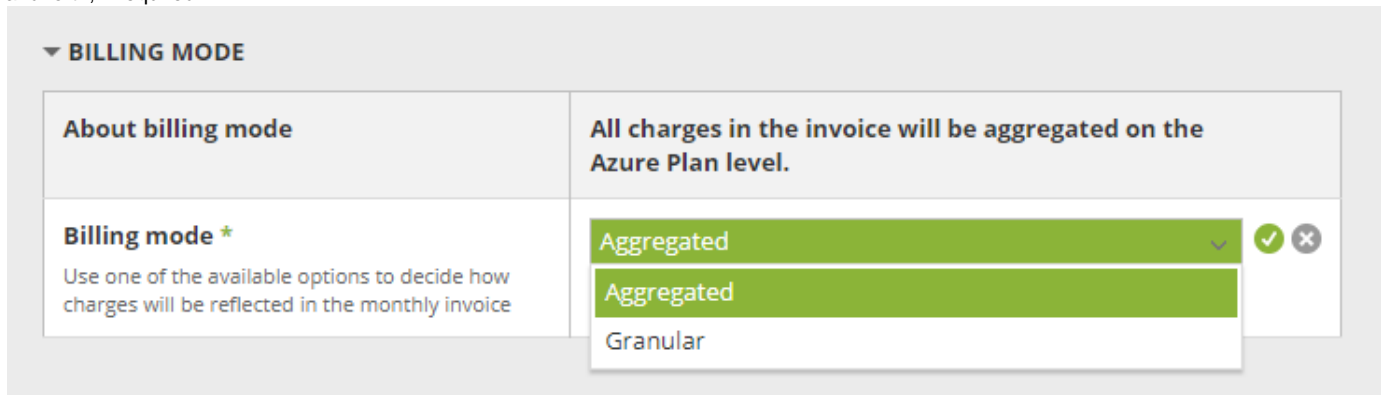

Prerequisites

To use the new feature, where billing is split per Azure Subscription within Azure Plan, customer should have an additional product in his marketplace. The product name is Azure Plan subscription for Granular mode.

Using the feature

After you have provisioned Azure Plan you will have the below dropdown available within the Azure Plan product. You will be able to switch back and forth, if required.

Just use the dropdown to switch between billing modes.

Aggregated mode.

While in aggregated mode you will see the charges on the Azure Plan level.
