The screenshot shows the Microsoft licensing portal interface. The top navigation bar includes tabs for 'Select service', 'Terms and Conditions', 'Configuration', and 'Order review'. The main content area displays the title 'Windows 11 GGWA Commercial Perpetual (Microsoft)' and the sub-section 'Special Product Terms'. The terms are organized into two main sections:

- 1. PRICE ADJUSTMENTS
  - 1.1. Price increases shall have a 14 (fourteen) days' notice period allowing Resellers to adjust their downstream agreements accordingly.
  - 1.2. Price decreases can be announced anytime.
- 2. DATACENTER LOCATION
  - 2.1. A datacenter is where the application software and customer data running on the software are located. Microsoft replicates customer data in at least two datacenters at any given time to protect against failure or local disaster.
  - 2.2. If a datacenter ceases functioning for any reason, customer data is not lost as the application software and customer data running on that application software are also available from a second or possibly third datacenter. Customers might not be notified when failover occurs. Depending on the particular service, failover may not result in any service interruption. Customers should assume that at any given time their customer data may be processed in either one or more of the

At the bottom of the terms section, there is a blue 'Accept' button with a checkmark icon. Below the button, a note states: 'By clicking the 'Accept' button, you acknowledge that you've read and agree to Terms and Conditions.' At the bottom right of the modal, there are 'Back' and 'Next' buttons with arrows.
